ACCEPTANCE OF TENDER BINDING

The Supreme Court handed down a decision yesterday affirming the decision of the Circuit court in the case of Nellie Hae versus the Hutchinson Plantation Company. The Supreme Court overruled the exceptions of the plaintiff in the suit, which was to recover certain rentals alleged underpaid, on the ground that the plaintiff had appointed a person to act as her agent in the collections of the same, the agent being authorized to give receipts therefor.

The following is the opinion of the Court, written by Justice Wilder, in full:

This is an action to recover rent under a lease from plaintiff which has been assigned to defendant. The Circuit Court, jury waived, found for the defendant and entered judgment accordingly. Plaintiff comes to this court on exceptions.

The annual provided in the lease is $150 annually, beginning in 1900. Plaintiff claims $375, being $75 for each of the years 1904, 1905, 1906 and $150 for 1907. At the beginning of the trial defendant tendered into court $75 as the rent for 1907, which plaintiff withdrew and accepted, and during the trial defendant produced receipts from the plaintiff, signed by her agent, purporting to be in full for each of the other years in question. It appears that during the year 1904 plaintiff appointed one Kekaula as her agent to collect her rents and give receipts therefor. This agent, with the knowledge and concurrence of plaintiff, as the evidence shows and as presumably the trial court found, collected and receipted in full for the rent for those three years on the basis of one-half, another claimant to half of the land leased having appeared, to whom the other half of the rent was paid or held for. The proposition amounted to an arrangement between plaintiff, through her agent, and defendant, whereby the rent stipulated for in the lease was reduced one-half in view of the fact that a third party made a claim to half of the land.

Under these circumstances plaintiff can not now repudiate the acts of her agent. This, of course, has nothing to do with the question who really owns the land.

In regard to the $150 claimed as rent for 1907, plaintiff is bound by her acceptance of the tender by defendant of $75. The tender was absolute and unconditional, and the acceptance of it binds plaintiff, and her subsequent claim that it was accepted on account can not avail.

The other exceptions are without merit.

Exceptions overruled.

W. L. Achi for plaintiff, H. E. Cooper for defendant.

The syllabus of the court is: Principal and agent.—The acts of an agent, made with the knowledge and concurrence of his principal, can not thereafter be repudiated by the latter.

Tender—effect of acceptance.—The acceptance of an absolute and unconditional tender is binding.

Read the statement that follows:

William Gilliver, of the well-known firm of Gilliver & Curtis, railway and general contractors, and whose private address is "Avoca," Bannockburn, a suburb of Sydney, N. S. W., has written the following unsolicited letter, which we herewith publish in full:

Messrs. Foster-McClellan Co., 76 Pitt street, Sydney, N. S. W.

Dear Sirs: In justice to suffering humanity, I write you of my experience with Doan's Ointment. I suffered from itching piles for twenty-two years, and though I consulted doctors and tried different preparations, I found only slight relief. Seeing Doan's Ointment advertised, I procured a box and had used but half the contents when I was cured. You may use this as you wish.

Yours gratefully,
WILLIAM GILLIVER.

Doan's Backache Kidney Pills are sold by all druggists and storekeepers at fifty cents per box (six boxes $2.50) or will be mailed on receipt of price by the Hollister Drug Co., Honolulu, wholesale agents for the Hawaiian Islands.

Remember the name, Doan's, and take no substitute.
